Course Code: EDU 416   Title: INSTRUCTIONAL DEVELOPMENT   Units: 3   TIME: 3HRS

INSTRUCTION: Answer all the questions.

Q1. a. Your Head of Department Dr. T.O. Alabi have just been appointed as the Commissioner for Education Niger State, and he has invited you to give a talk on Models of Curriculum and Instruction Relationships Secondary School Teachers in the State.

Based on your knowledge of the models of the relationships, you are expected to;

    i.   List and explain in detail the curriculum and instruction relationships to them with appropri diagrams.
    ii.   List five (5) main National Objectives of Nigeria.
    iii.   Identify the Aims /Goals of Education at any level of education of your choice (primary, second and tertiary).

Q2. i. Differentiate between Instructional goals and Instructional objectives.

   ii. State five (5) merits each of Instructional Objectives to; the teacher and students.

   iii. State five (5) instructional objectives in your subject area.

   iv. Mention five phrases/words that could be used in stating instructional objectives that cannot be achieve measured at the end of the lesson.

Q3. According to Benjamin Bloom and his associates there are six levels of Cognitive Domain. Based on the ab you are expected to;

    i.   Mention the six levels of Cognitive Domain.
    ii.   Define each of the levels of the Cognitive Domain.
    iii.   Mention two keywords that can be used at each level of Bloom's Ranking of Thinking Skills.
    iv.   Formulate one question each for all the levels of the cognitive domain

Q4. i. Differentiate between a lesson plan and a lesson note

   ii. State five (5) instructional objectives under the following headings;

    a.   In measurable terms only.
    b.   In measurable and specific terms (both together)
    c.   What does the; Horses, Eagle, Y-Symbol, and Green Vegetation stands for in the National Coat of Arms
    d.   Write a comprehensive lesson note in your subject area with not less than five (5) behavioural objectives

GOOD LUCK