

1. Attempt a justification of the ADEJUNWON'S view that tropical countries constitute the bulk of what is widely known as the developing or underdeveloped world.(15marks).
2. (a) What were the major objectives of Structural Adjustment Programme (SAP?). (6marks).
effect of liberalization effect of demand side supply
(b) Discuss the major challenges of SAP and the possible way forward. (8marks).
3. Discuss the reasons for developing countries not been able to provide sufficient food for its growing population and suggest the possible way out.(15marks).
4. Justify the view that Saharan countries are Fourth Group of countries in developing world that are struggling to ensure the success of industrialization. (15marks).
5. With reference to any developing country, discuss population growth as a major challenge and discuss the solutions. (15marks).
6. The relationship in mining between developed and developing nations is that of master servant relationship, prove this statement. (15marks).