

FEDERAL UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY, MINNA

SCHOOL OF INFORMATION AND COMMUNICATION TECHNOLOGY

FIRST SEMESTER FINAL 2013/2014 EXAMINATION

[CIT 416MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEM]

Instruction:ANSWER ANY FOUR QUESTIONS

1. Describe the hierarchical management levels of a typical Organization. What type of decision-making is associated with each of the identifiable levels?
2. Give an insight into the Management Information System Development Methodologies out there. What are the limitations of the Traditional waterfall model for developing a Management Information System?
3. What types of feasibility studies and tests should prelude the development of a Management Information System? Outline what steps you would take if asked to design/model a Management Information System.
4. What is Management Information System (MIS)? What are the Characteristics of MIS? Allude to the relationship which the systems within MIS bring to one another.
5. Enumerate and describe the characteristics of good management decision-making information. What key societal impacts and effects do Management Information Systems provide?
6. List and explain the major parts which a Management Information System must have in order to be able to manipulate information and data?